

REPRESENTACIÓN 3D

A 3D wireframe model of a mechanical assembly. A specific component, which appears to be a long, thin, cylindrical part with a flange at one end, is highlighted in blue. This component is positioned horizontally and is connected to a larger, more complex structure on the right. The background shows various other parts of the assembly, including beams, bolts, and a curved surface, all rendered in a light gray wireframe style.